CIGAR LIST

ENJOYING YOUR CIGAR

The pleasure of smoking a cigar should come from savouring the flavour and aroma of smoke. Not from inhaling it but a cigar should be smoked slowly.

Smoking your cigar too quickly will introduce harsh, bitter flavours that will spoil the cigar.

As you smoke your cigar, the flavour of the cigar will change. This is because the smoke you pull through the remaining tobacco intensifies the flavours.

COHIBA MINI, 3.22" Ø 19

$ 20

Excellent mini cigars expertly made from 100% fine Cubano leaf. Easy draw, delicious aroma and full of flavours.

Strength: Light to medium bodied

HOYO DE MONTERREY, NO 2, 4.88" Ø 50

$ 60

Completely hand-made with tobacco leaves coming from Vuelta Abajo, it is creamy and smooth yet it is robust. The aromas of tobacco are strong but the tastes of cocoa, cinnamon and dried berries make it a complex cigar.

The cigar becomes stronger towards the end but a great creaminess stays on the palate. The flavours are more vegetal and a bit green.

Strength: Light to medium bodied

COHIBA, SIGLO III, 6" Ø 42

$ 65

A medium bodied Havana that delivers a smooth oily smoke, with hints of nutmeg and cinnamon on the palate. The second third is woody and will offer some gentle spicy notes.

It has a very pleasant, calm, rich and oily finale. It reminds of the taste of sea food and 'Provençal gastronomy'.

Strength: medium Bodied

MONTECRISTO, TORPEDO NO 2, 6.1" Ø 52

$ 70

Its mild taste, perfect construction and beautiful appearance.

The Montecristo No.2 tantalizes the palate with rich wood and spice flavors, yet maintains a creamy feel the whole way through.

Strength: Medium to full

SHISHA / HOOKAH / WATERPIPE

$ 35

Shisha is known by different names around the world and also commonly called Hookah and water pipe.

This is a Middle Eastern smoking tradition that began hundreds of years ago before the onslaught of cigarette companies. It is a pipe with a long, flexible stem that allows the smoke is cooled by being made to pass through water.

Shisha is tobacco soaked in molasses, and then flavoured with natural ingredients and perfumes. It is then smoked through a water pipe. The water is said to filter out some of the harmful aspects of the smoke.

Shisha tobacco comes in a variety of various fruity flavours and below flavours are available:

- Berries
- Grape
- Liquorice
- Melon
- Mint
- Strawberry
- Two Apple
