vidhun the spa

Rising up from the vast expanse of the deep blue Indian Ocean, more than a thousand islands come together to form the Maldives. Embracing the pure beauty of this place, experience the power and history of Maldivian holistic wellness with us.

the philosophy

Dhivehibeys, our indigenous curative heritage. Harvesting fresh local ingredients from in and around the atolls to power traditional healing techniques we work to ensure that the good health of our guests shines both inside and out. Local ingredients include the Maldives national fruit – coconut and the national flower – rose.

the evvaru rituals

Balancing hoonu, fini and hiki. Designed to make spirit shine, Sehatu – good health and Vidhun meaning to shine, is achieved by balancing hot, cold and dry humours in the body; Hoonu – cooling, Fini – heating and Hiki – hydrating.

Ayurveda is a natural and traditional system of wellness with roots in India. Ayurveda means 'Knowledge on How to Lead a Healthy Life.' Several thousand years old, Ayurveda highlights an ideal lifestyle to establish and maintain radiant physical, mental and spiritual health.

Ayurveda considers each individual has three energies – Vata (air & space), Pitta (fire & water) and Kapha (water & earth), which are present in our body. When all the three energies are balanced, the individual is considered to be in perfect health.

This balance can be disturbed during our lifetime by changes in diet, daily routines and hectic lifestyles. The Science of Life in Ayurveda focuses on balancing these imbalanced energies to maintain or bring back good health through wellness, purificatory and rejuvenation healing techniques.
